4) Rates for the levy of professional taxes have been included in the schedule. This does not seem to be correct. The mt el has to frame separate rules in this behalf.

5) Shd these rules be framed before the rules are passed

Please see letter rates of tax proposed require revision in accordance with the provisions of the Town Rates Regn. e.g. Octroi

7/10

The proposed rates of the taxes are generally above in accordance with those provided in the Town Rates Regn. No rates have been fixed in the Regn in respect of tax on vacant lands, motor cars and slaughter house fees.

Under octroi there are some differences in the proposed rates and scheduled rates. The scheduled rates for piece goods and timber are 3 pies per rupee advalorem and 2 & 4 per cent respectively. The proposed rates are 3 pies and eight pies per cent respectively.

* Given in the Regn.

The papers sent by the Dy Comr show that the Draft rules (they are termed bye-laws in the correspondence) were published for objections so far back as 12-9 1929 and that they were finally passed by the Mn Council, after considering the objections, on 9 11-1929 They were sent to Govt for the first time in May 1933 ie after the lapse of 3½ years.

The Town Nuisances Regn has since come into force and some changes have been made in the rates of tax leviable

Q. Is for consideration if the Draft rules may be passed with the necessary changes or whether in view of the lapse of time they may be asked to be re-published under the new Regn with the needful alterations and approved by the Mn Council after hearing objections if any

A

The Schedule annexed to the Draft rules includes Professional tax. Separate rules (bye-laws for the levy of this tax appear necessary (as has been framed in other Mnpties) and the Mn Council has perhaps to be asked to frame Draft rules or bye-laws, excluding this tax for the present from the Schedule.
